

Part IV – The Steward Leader in the Mirror

The Gift of Certainty

I claim the certainty that I am a child of God, fearfully and wonderfully made. Today, I praise God for the following ways that he has made me:

"For I am fearfully and wonderfully made." Psalm 139:14

Confession

I confess that I am listening to the voice of the enemy when I see myself as:

My Commitment

Today, I will come against whatever is causing distortion in my life and reclaim the true image of who I am in Christ. The first step will be:

My Daily Discipline

1. Begin each day affirming this balance and pray not to be pulled in either direction
2. Surrender your position back to God each day, refuse to play the owner, but take on the mantle of the steward with respect to your position

Steward Leaders Develop Whole People

Working from your DISC and Meyers-Briggs results, how would you lead others to be balanced and healthy in their own self-perceptions?

Steward Leaders Harness the Power of People

Free leaders allow and encourage the greatest level of achievement and excellence from their people, and build the most faithful and effective organizations as a result.

Working from your DISC and Meyers-Briggs results, how would you best lead your people to help them achieve their highest level of effectiveness as a steward leader?
